Douglasville, GA – I like to move it, move it in Downtown Douglasville! The Douglasville Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) wraps up the 2009 Friday Night Flicks free outdoor movie series on August 7th with Madagascar 2: Escape 2 Africa on O’Neal Plaza.

Have one last summer hoo-rah before the school year begins and show us how you like to move it, move it during the pre-show hula-hoop and dance contest. Downtown restaurants will be open so moviegoers are encouraged to grab some take out to enjoy during the show. Everyone attending the movie is asked to bring a blanket, pillow, low back chair, or beanbag for seating.

A special thank you is extended to Allstate Network Entertainment for coming out and entertaining Douglasville this summer! Join the Douglasville CVB with Allstate Network Entertainment and Hit the Bricks for the final installment of Friday Night Flicks in Downtown Douglasville.

The Georgia General Assembly established the Town of Douglasville on February 25, 1875. As a “New South” postbellum railroad town, Douglasville developed into a dominant commercial district and transformed from the little farming village of Skint Chestnut into a thriving town. Today, Douglasville boasts historic and natural attractions, shopping and culture, and casual and formal dining options, which are all the ingredients for a perfect weekend getaway. For more details, contact the Douglasville Convention & Visitors Bureau by calling toll-free (800) 661-0013 or by visiting www.visitdouglasville.com.
